SOCIETY FOR SOCIAL STUDIES OF SCIENCE (4S)

&

EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE STUDY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

(EASST)

20-23 August 2008
Rotterdam, The Netherlands

Conference theme:
Acting with Science, Technology and Medicine

FINAL PROGRAM

Sarariman Meets Japanese Genes (and then other Sararimen): Diabetes Research and the Politics of Men's Health in Japan
Gergely Mohacsi, Univerisity of Tokyo, mohacska@y5.dion.ne.jp

Cyborg Women who Make Women Beautiful: Following Skin-Care Experts in Korea
So Yeon Leem, Seoul National University, eco2005@snu.ac.kr

Session 2.1.4: Challenging STS concepts

Room: T3-11

Chair: Friedrich Glock, University of Technology Vienna, fglock@pop.tuwien.ac.at

Doing Science with Bourdieu Structure, practlce and Reflexivity
Niko Antalffy & Janet Chan, University of New South Wales, n.antalffy@unsw.edu.au

Enrolment for Innovation? Analyzing the Lactobacillus GG Innovation Process from the Point of View of Conceptual Blending
Nina Janasik, Helsinki University of Technology, nina.janasik@hut.fi

Digital Television on the Line the Story of HD-Divine
Lena Ewertsson, Göteborg University, lena.ewertsson@sociology.gu.se

What STS can Teach Computer Scientists about Design Metaphors
Merel Noorman, University of Maastricht, m.noorman@philosophy.unimaas.nl

Descriptions for Reflections On the Reflective Turn in Design Research
Friedrich Glock, University of Technology Vienna, fglock@pop.tuwien.ac.at

Session 2.1.6: Cardiovascular Prevention on its Travels - from the Laboratory to the Kindergarten and back. Please put STS in the Overhead Locker or Under the Seat in Front of You!

Organizer: Joerg Niewoehner

Room: T3-13

Chair: Joerg Niewoehner, Humboldt University Berlin, joerg.niewoehner@staff.hu-berlin.de

Representing or Non-representing the Metabolic Syndrome? Possible Steps Towards an Ecology of Scientific Knowledge and Cardiovascular Prevention.
Martin Doering & Regine Kollek, University of Hamburg, doering@metaphorik.de

The Population as a Laboratory: The Management of Complexity in Cardiovascular Epidemiology
Susanne Bauer, University of Copenhagen, susanne.bauer@mm.ku.dk

Prevention on its Travel: What Happens Insight the Negotiation Process between Patients and Physicians in Primary Care?
Christoph Heintze, Medical School, christoph.heintze@charite.de

A Thick Description of Fat - Doing Cardiovascular Prevention between Lab and Kindergarten
Joerg Niewoehner, Humboldt University Berlin, joerg.niewoehner@staff.hu-berlin.de

Prevention of Obesity in Children: a Symmetrical Approach to the Everyday Life of People and Bodies in a Healthy Kindergarten
Michalis Kontopodis, Humboldt University Berlin, michalis.kontopodis@staff.hu-berlin.de

Discussant: Annemarie Mol, University of Twente, a.mol@gw.utwente.nl

Session 2.1.7: Technology and the State

Room: T3-14

Chair: Alejandra Carolina Morales-Nasser, Tecnologico de Monterrey, carolina.morales@itesm.mx

Technology Modernity and Historiography - Notes on Greece
Michalis Assimakopoulos, National Technical University Athens, massim@central.ntua.gr