URBANTEK
STUR

I write about cities. about what we say about them. how we understand them. how we talk about them.

REVIEW KULTUR:STADT

March 21, 2013 · by urbantekstur · in Review

Last weekend I had the pleasure of visiting the exhibition Kultur:Stadt at Akademie der Künste. The exhibition has quickly become the talk of the town and not without reason.

Kultur:Stadt is interactive and communicative, but in its eagerness to succeed and exceed the limits of traditional curatorial practice, it on the one hand comes to contradict itself in that debate, which it wants to ignite and on the other, opens a whole view on communication.
